In the event that any invoiced amount is disputed in good faith by Hospital the Hospital shall deliver written notice of such disputed amount to Contractor within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice and such notice shall toll Hospital's payment obligation until resolution of the dispute as described herein. Upon receipt of written notice of a billing dispute, Contractor shall promptly deliver to Hospital any backup or other information reasonably necessary to support the correctness of any disputed amount.

Hospital shall have fifteen (15) days ("Hospital Review Period") to examine such information and shall pay all portions of such disputed amount which have been substantiated by such information. In the event the Parties are unable to resolve any remaining disputed amount within fifteen (15) days after the end of the Hospital Review Period, either Party may explore any remedies available to it.

TERM AND INDEMNITY

1. Term of Agreement. This Agreement shall commence as of the effective date of June 3, 2016 and shall term no later than June 3, 2017 or when the last Terra Linda athletic competition has been completed but no sooner than May 5, 2017, unless sooner terminated as follows:
2. Termination Without Cause. Either party, at any time during the term of this Agreement and for any reason, may terminate this Agreement or any purchase order upon giving the other party thirty (30) days prior written notice. Termination of this Agreement shall not act as a waiver of, or as a release from liability for, any breach of this Agreement. Termination or expiration of this Agreement shall not affect or negate any obligation of either party to the other arising prior to the date of such termination or expiration.
3. Termination for Cause. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party (the Breaching Party) if the Breaching Party (a) is in material breach of any provision of this Agreement and such breach adversely impacts the rights and benefits of the non-breaching party under this Agreement and (b) the Breaching Party has failed to cure such breach within thirty (30) calendar days after receiving written notice from the non-Breaching Party reasonably describing the breach.
4. Indemnification. Each party (the "Indemnifying Party") shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other party and its officers, directors, trustees, and employees from and against any claim, demand, liability, loss, judgment, settlement, suit, action, cost or expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or incident to: (i) the negligent or intentional acts or omissions of the Indemnifying Party, its officers, directors or employees in connection with this Agreement; and (ii) the use or provision of Products that involves any acts or omissions of the Provider for which strict or products liability may be alleged.
5. Medicare/Medicaid. Each party represents that to its knowledge it and its employees and agents are not currently, nor have they ever been, under investigation by any governmental authority with respect to any matter that could give rise to suspension or debarment under any federal or state health care program or to criminal liability and has no reason to believe that there are any bases for such investigations. Each Party shall immediately notify the other party if it believes that it or any of its employees or agents is subject to government investigation. In addition, Each party represents that it and its employees and agents have no prior convictions for a health care related offense and are not currently suspended or debarred from participating in any federal or state health care program.
6. Insurance. Each party agrees to maintain a policy of comprehensive commercial general liability insurance with coverage of at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence and three million dollars ($3,000,000) in the annual aggregate; (b) workers' compensation insurance as required by applicable state law and employers' liability insurance; (c) professional liability insurance with coverage of at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence and three million dollars ($3,000,000) in the annual aggregate. Notwithstanding subsection (b) above, because workers' compensation coverage does not extend to owners of companies, including sole proprietors, Each party retains responsibility for any work-related/on-the job injuries.

7. Dispute Resolution. If the parties cannot resolve a dispute between them relating to this Agreement after using good faith efforts to resolve the dispute informally, the parties shall submit the dispute to binding arbitration in accordance with the then prevailing Commercial Arbitration Rules of JAMS/Endispute. The parties shall bear the arbitrator's fees and expenses equally. The place of arbitration shall be the County of Marin, California. Judgment upon the award may be entered and enforced in the appropriate state or federal court sitting in the county where arbitration is located.
8. Amendments. This Agreement may be amended only by a writing signed by both parties.
