5. What do you see as the basic purpose of the public schools?

To educate our youth, not indoctrinate. To create good citizens, To prepare children for their future and encourage positive attributes. To teach kids about our past and create a bright future

6. What is the role of the school board in the fulfillment of that purpose?

To ensure education is meeting its intended purpose.
To guide policy and procedure for staff.
To ensure funding and resources are appropriately utilized to support education

7. What should be the relationship between the board members and the administration in the handling of school concerns?

Board members should enable Administration to handle concerns while also acting as an oversight body to represent community/parent concerns to ensure fair and impartial treatment of issues is occurring

8. What is the single most critical issue facing the District in the immediate future and how would your background and experiences help the District to meet this challenge?

Budgetary concerns - School closing, staff pay, future projects.
With my military and corporate experience I am able to view each issue unemotionally and without prejudice. I understand that sometimes the best decisions are not always the most popular ones. In all things you must explain the "why" for the decision

9. What do you see as the strengths of PRJUSD?

- + The board has a combination of different levels of experience and backgrounds
- + The members as parents, can sympathize with the public/parents in the district
- + The Board operates with the interests of the public at heart
- + The Board understands the educational system and future impact of their decisions

10. What do you see as the area(s) most needing improvement in PRJUSD?

Our district needs to ensure we are competitive academically not only with districts in our area but also with districts throughout California. We need to attract students and teachers to the district. Right now we are losing both

11. Additional information or remarks you believe are relevant to this appointment:

The incoming board member will be entering at a time when the district is facing a multitude of issues. The member will need to be able to catch up very quickly on all the recent and on going decisions facing the board and be able to be an asset to the existing members and community
