At the request of YIA, The DISTRICT agrees to set up initial planning meetings and to require staff participating in the program to attend these meetings. In the case of multisession residencies and workshops, the DISTRICT agrees to work with the assigned Mentor Artists to set class schedules, and recognizes that flexibility and compromise are often necessary by the Artist and the DISTRICT in setting a schedule. The DISTRICT understands that the collaboration and participation of teachers is vital to the success of any program. In the absence of such express written agreement, any Mentor Artist sessions, services or other deliverables not fulfilled before the end of the SCHOOL YEAR will be forfeited by the DISTRICT and will NOT carry over to the next academic year.

4. Public Recognition of Program

The DISTRICT agrees to recognize "Youth in Arts" programs when applicable opportunities arise such as in newsletters, event programs and exhibits, and at Back to School Night and Open House, and to share blogs and other online postings created by YIA with families via the DISTRICT's own online channels. The DISTRICT will inform parents and teachers, as appropriate, that students are participating in a "Youth in Arts" program. If this agreement results in a performance or exhibit, the DISTRICT agrees to acknowledge YIA in all promotional materials, signage, and announcements related to the event. In the case of the permanent installation of artwork resulting from this agreement at Davidson Middle School, specific guidelines regarding acknowledgment of YIA must be followed. The DISTRICT agrees to contact YIA in advance if permanent installation of artwork is to take place.

The DISTRICT understands that YIA documents programs through photography and that the DISTRICT is responsible for the distribution and collection of any required Student Photo Release Forms for parents of students participating in a program operated by a contracted nonprofit. The DISTRICT agrees to inform YIA of any students who wish to decline YIA's use of photos or video. Rights may be exercised by YIA in all media and formats whether now known or hereafter devised.
