Rationale for activity:

- A) Explain the educational value and relate to the instructional program or sponsoring organization and Policy 1100.

Students will be competing in a state-wide speech and debate tournament with the opportunity to qualify for the National Tournament of Champions held later in the year. Students will compete in Lincoln Douglas Debate, Public Forum Debate, Parliamentary Debate and Speech events including impromptu and extemporaneous speech.

- B) Explain impact on instructional time and justification for any time lost.

Students will be missing a day of class to attend the tournament. They will make up the work they miss over the weekend during breaks in the tournament schedule. This time lost will be made up in the experience of competing in argumentation and public speaking against students from around the state performing in front of coaches from around the state as well. They will also be meeting students from competitive programs statewide as well.

- C) Complete Itinerary: Please be specific and include detailed activity time periods for each day. (Attach additional page(s) if necessary.)

Students will leave by 9 am on 12/9 to begin competing in Carlsbad by 3 pm. The tournament continues on Saturday at La Costa Canyon High School all day beginning at 7 am - 8 pm. Students will compete on Sunday in final rounds for the morning and return to the high school by 3 pm Sunday, 12/11. We will be staying at the Carlsbad by the Sea at 850 Palomas Airport Road, Carlsbad. Students will be transported by district approved parent drivers and Mrs. Moore.
