WHEREAS, in 2002, the District's Resolution declared that César Chavez Day is not currently a District or City holiday in Berkeley; rather it is an experimental service learning alternative to a school and city holiday; and

WHEREAS, in 2002, the District Resolution included the intended commitment to follow an approved implementation plan that strongly prioritizes the following:

- Distribution of information on curricula and resources developed by the state for teachers,

- Encouraging teachers, through announcements and publications, to incorporate curricula and resources into their lesson plans
- Encouraging each school to have school-wide activities on or around March 31 to honor the legacy of Cesar Chavez; and

WHEREAS, in 2003, the City along with the Cesar Chavez Commemoration Planning Committee began to celebrate a citywide commemorative period—beginning on the Spring Equinox, March 8, the beginning of the planting season in agriculture, continuing through Cesar Chavez’ birthday, March 31st, and then on to April 8, the anniversary of the labor leader & environmentalist’s death; and

WHEREAS, in 2009, the City Wide Chavez Commemoration Committee, which is made up of teams from the City, District, UCB and the Community, voted to rotate the leadership of the committee each year among the teams (District 2016, City 2017 and Community in 2018); and

WHEREAS, in 2014, the Chavez Commemoration Committee voted to also honor Dolores Huerta for her vital partnership with Cesar Chavez, her dedicated commitment to farmworkers and the formation of the UFW, and now to her work with the Dolores Huerta Foundation—creating networks of healthy, organized communities pursuing social justice; and

WHEREAS, César Chavez and Dolores Huerta formed an amazing organizing team who believed that service to others was a calling, a mission and a way of life, not merely an occupation or an occasional act of charity. community, but that service benefited those individuals who joined together to improve a community.

AND FINALLY BE IT RESOLVED, that together the school board directors and city councilmembers are encouraged to participate in the Chavez/Huerta Commemorative Events at their respective “adoptive schools” and districts.
