Are you a continuing Delegate? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No If yes, how long have you served as a Delegate? 10 years

Why are you interested in becoming a Delegate? Please describe the skills and experiences you would bring to the Delegate Assembly.

In 2008, as a new member of the CUSD Board of Trustees, I was elected to the CSBA Delegate Assembly. I was re-elected in 2010, 2012, 2014 and 2016. As a Delegate, it has been my honor to serve the interests of school districts and county offices of education throughout the state, continuing to expand my knowledge of policy and governance through hands-on experience and formal training such as the Masters in Governance program, of which I am a proud graduate.

Over the course of my career in education, and throughout my service as an elected official, I have remained an advocate for students and for the educational community, actively lobbying legislators on important issues. This activism has been recognized with a California School Employees Association (CSEA) Wally Blice Award for outstanding political service. In 2013, I was appointed to CSBA's Legislative Committee. In 2014 I was again recognized by CSEA with an Outstanding Service Award, and I had the honor of being named California's 21st Assembly District Woman of the Year.

If elected to a fourth term on the CSBA Delegate Assembly, I will continue to keep children as my highest priority in providing effective, temperate governance and activism.

Please describe your activities and involvement on your local board, community, and/or CSBA.

It was my pleasure to be a classified employee of the Ceres Unified School District for 32 years, until my retirement in 1997. I was also privileged to serve as President of CSEA Chapter 140, and was honored in 2008 as a member of the CSEA Honor Roll. Seeking to continue working on behalf of Ceres students, I ran for, and was elected to, the CUSD Board of Trustees in 2007. It was my pleasure and privilege to be re-elected to a second term in 2011, and a third term in 2015.

With my fellow Trustees, I have kept children foremost in my decision-making through the greatest fiscal crisis of our generation, a major overhaul in the way schools are funded through the LCFF, and implementation of new state standards and assessments. We supported the successful deployment of Internet-enabled devices to every Ceres student – nearly 14,000 in all – to enhance instruction and provide relevant skills for college and careers. And with the implementation of the California School Dashboard, we look forward to utilizing new measures and meaningful data in continuing our work to address inequities and provide a quality education for all students.

For the past six years, I have also held the office of Treasurer of the Association of Stanislaus County School Boards. My efforts in public safety advocacy have been acknowledged with a Lifetime Achievement Award in my community of Ceres.

What do you see as the biggest challenge facing governing boards and how can CSBA help address it?

Amid a volatile political environment that, for many students, fosters feelings of uncertainty and unease, it is more important than ever for governing boards to set student interests as the highest priority of every decision. While striving for quality instruction, effective staffing, and fiscal responsibility within our districts and county offices of education, we must also serve as advocates for the "whole child," setting direction that supports students' physical, emotional, social, and behavioral well-being, as we know that students achieve their full academic potential only when they feel safe, secure, and valued within the school environment. To succeed in this effort, we must also cultivate and maintain a constructive presence within our communities so that families feel comfortable entrusting us with their students' well-being. CSBA can help to support these priorities through continued legislative advocacy, policy guidance, meaningful discourse on relevant topics, and ongoing training for governing board members.
