Rationale for activity:

A) Explain the educational value and relate to the instructional program or sponsoring organization and Policy 1100.

The WGI West Power Regionals - Color Guard is an event which brings together middle school, high schools, colleges and independent color guard groups from all over the Western United States. The competition is only part of the event, as there are clinics and master classes that are being presented throughout the weekend. It is also a time for our students to see the other amazing groups and make connections with their classmates.

B) Explain impact on instructional time and justification for any time lost.

No loss of instructional time

C) Complete Itinerary: Please be specific and include detailed activity time periods for each day. (Attach additional page(s) if necessary.)
