

Berkeley Educator Recruitment and Retention Public Hearing

November 20, 2019

Brent Stephens, EdD, Superintendent

Natasha Beery, Director of BSEP and Community Relations

Summary of Rationale

An educator recruitment and retention crisis is affecting our students:

- The 19-20 school year opened with many teaching, Special Ed and paraprofessional positions unfilled.

BUSD salaries are not competitive with area districts:

- BUSD is ranked #16 out of 18 on experienced teacher salary scales;
- Other districts have LCFF “concentration” dollars (not applicable to BUSD) or use targeted special taxes; Berkeley’s tax funds provide libraries, small class sizes, counselors, music programs, facility repairs and other essentials but cannot be “swept” to address other needs.

Berkeley voters support local funding for Berkeley educators:

- State funding is inadequate: California ranked #37 in nation in per-pupil funding;
- Voter pride in Berkeley school taxes as an investment in our community values.

Designated funding strengthens salaries and professional pathways so that:

- Berkeley students benefit from a dedicated team of highly qualified and appropriately compensated professionals.
