Four (4) hours of staff training during staff meeting time in "We Are Resilient™" which is a resilience program for educator wellness that helps staff take care of themselves and mitigate the negative impacts of secondary trauma and/or compassion fatigue.		SRCS has the opportunity to be a development partner & early adopter, creating a specific educator wellness curriculum that is free, adaptable and accessible to all current and future SRCS employees. This will help fortify the Tier 1 supports in the MTSS of SRCS.	Based on pre and post self surveys completed by the trained staff, there will be increased competence and confidence to deal with the emotional stressors of educators.
