

Santa Clara Unified School District
Santa Clara, California

Resolution # 20-29

PROCLAIMING THE WEEK OF OCTOBER 11-17, 2020,
THE WEEK OF THE SCHOOL ADMINISTRATOR

WHEREAS, leadership matters for California's public education system and the more 6 million students it serves; and

WHEREAS, school administrators are passionate, lifelong learners who believe the value of quality public education; and

WHEREAS, the title "school administrators" is a broad term used to define many education leadership posts. Superintendents, assistant superintendents, principals, assistant principals, special education, and adult education leaders, curriculum, and assessment leaders, school business officials, classified educational leaders, and other school district employees are considered administrators; and

WHEREAS, providing quality service for students success is paramount for the profession; and

WHEREAS, most school administrators began their careers as teachers. The average administrator has served in public education for more than a decade. Most of California's superintendents have served in education for more than 20 years. Such experience is beneficial in their work to effectively and efficiently lead public education and improve student achievement; and

WHEREAS, public schools operate with lean management systems. Across the nation, public schools employ fewer managers and supervisors than most public and private sector industries including transportation, food service, manufacturing, utilities, construction, publishing, and public administrators; and

WHEREAS, school leaders depend on a network of support from school communities – fellow administrators, teachers, parents, students, businesses, community members, board trustees, colleges, and universities, communities elected officials and district and county staff and resourced – to promote ongoing student achievement and school success and

WHEREAS, the State of California has declared the second full week in October the "Week" of the School Administrator" with SB 1229 and in Education Code 44015.1:

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Education for Santa Clara Unified School District that all school leaders in the District be commended for the contributions they make to successful student achievement and declare the Week of October 11-17, 2020, as the Week of the School Administrator in Santa Clara Unified School District.
