- 100% of expenditures used to retain highly-qualified teachers in support of core programs, literacy, physical education, music and art programs
- Parcel tax funding 100% of actual costs for approximately 25 teaching positions
 - 77% of funded positions in core programs: reading, writing, science and math
 - 23% of funded positions to maintain literacy, physical education, music and art programs

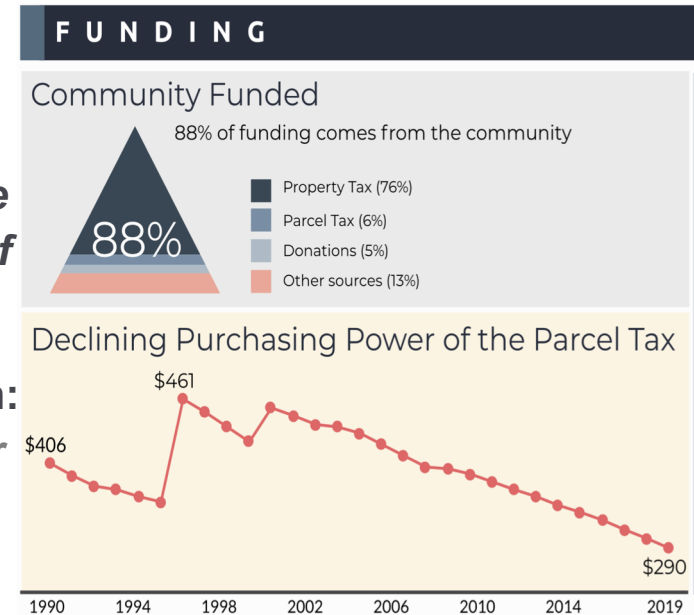

Findings and Recommendations

Committee finds parcel tax collections in the 2019-20 budget year were used in accordance with the ballot language of Measure B and in the spirit of the promise made to voters

Recommendations: FAC public communication:

- Parcel tax collections have become a smaller contribution to the District's annual budget
- Declining purchasing power with no annual inflation adjustor
- Provides essential benefits including retaining highly qualified teachers and maintain reading, writing, math, science art and science. This is equivalent to approximately 25 current teachers.
- FAPTOC will convene in spring to evaluate District's proposed Parcel Tax spending allocation.
