8.1. Tentative Agreement with SMETA on Memorandum of Understanding for Elementary Hybrid In-Person Learning (v)

Sue Wieser, Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources, presented the Tentative Agreement with SMETA - MOU for Elementary Hybrid In-Person learning and announced the wonderful news that the MOU was ratified to return in person on March 8, 2021. She added that the MOU outlined all the agreements for students and staff to return safely to the classrooms. She respectfully asked for the approval of the MOU as presented.

Board Comments:

Thank you, grateful, excited were words that all five Trustees expressed during their comments. They appreciated the time and effort spent in developing the plan that included all the safety protocols. They said that they are very excited for the students and for the teachers to return to the classrooms. They felt that this is a step in the right direction and thanked SMETA and the District for their patience, noting that these are stressful times but they were thankful for the ratification of the agreement. They reminded everyone to follow all the safety guidelines as they returned to school and sent their best wishes.

Motion Passed: IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES APPROVE THE PROPOSED MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING FOR ELEMENTARY HYBRID IN-PERSON LEARNING WITH SMETA AS NEGOTIATED. Passed with a motion by Shara Watkins and a second by Lisa Warren.
