Independent Study Program

Definitions

Live interaction means interaction between the student and classified or certificated staff, and may include peers, provided for the purpose of maintaining school connectedness, including, but not limited to, wellness checks, progress monitoring, provision of services, and instruction. This interaction may take place in person, or in the form of Internet or telephonic communication. (Education Code 51745.5)

Student-parent-educator conference means a meeting involving, at a minimum, all parties who signed the student's written independent study agreement pursuant to Education Code 51747 or the written learning agreement pursuant to Education Code 51749.6. (Education Code 51745.5)

Synchronous instruction means classroom-style instruction or designated small group or one-on-one instruction delivered in person, or in the form of Internet or telephonic communications, and involving live two-way communication between the teacher and student. Synchronous instruction shall be provided by the teacher of record for that student pursuant to Education Code 51747.5. (Education Code 51745.5)

Educational Opportunities

For the 2021-22 school year, the District shall offer independent study to meet the educational needs of students as specified in Education Code 51745 unless the District has obtained a waiver. (Education Code 51745)

Independent Study Program

Educational opportunities offered through independent study may include, but are not limited to: (Education Code 51745)

1. Special assignments extending the content of regular courses of instruction
2. Individualized study in a particular area of interest or in a subject not currently available in the regular school curriculum
3. Individualized alternative education designed to teach the knowledge and skills of the core curriculum, but not provided as an alternative curriculum
4. Continuing and special study during travel
5. Volunteer community service activities and leadership opportunities that support and strengthen student achievement
6. Individualized study for a student whose health, as determined by the student's parent/guardian, would be put at risk by in-person instruction

In addition, when requested by a parent/guardian due to an emergency or illness, independent study may be used on a short-term basis to ensure that the student is able to maintain academic progress in the student's regular classes.

→ ~~student shall be required to participate in independent study (E.C. 51747).~~

No course required for high school graduation shall be offered exclusively through independent study (E.C. 51745).

No individual with exceptional needs, as defined in Education Code 56026, may participate in independent study unless his/her individualized education program specifically provides for such participation (E.C. 51745).

INSTRUCTION

Independent Study Program

No more than 10% of the students enrolled in continuation or opportunity education may be on independent study at any given time (E.C. 51747).

No temporarily disabled student may receive individual instruction pursuant to E.C. 48206.3 by means of independent study (E.C. 51745).

All coursework offered to adults through independent study shall meet the requirements for a high school diploma (E.C. 46300.4).

Criteria for Participation

Students who are interested in independent study should contact their school principal/designee and complete an alternative education application specifying independent study. Approval for participation shall be based on the following criteria:

1. Acceptable reason for requesting independent study including, but not limited to, long term medical needs, student welfare, family hardship or emergency, and extended travel.
2. Evidence that the student will work independently to complete the program.
3. Approval by the District's Alternative Education Placement Committee.
4. Availability of certificated staff with adequate time to supervise the student effectively.
5. A written statement indicating educational objectives, how the objectives will be accomplished, and how progress toward the objectives will be measured.

independently provided that experienced certificated staff are available to effectively supervise students in independent study. The Superintendent or designee may also approve the participation of a student whose health would be put at risk by in-person instruction. A student whose academic performance is not at grade level may participate in independent study only if the program is able to provide appropriate support, such as supplemental instruction, tutoring, counseling, ongoing diagnostic assessments, and/or differentiated materials, to enable the student to be successful. For an elementary student, the Superintendent or designee may consider the parent/guardian's level of commitment to assist the student.

A student participating in independent study must be a resident of the county or an adjacent county. Full-time independent study shall not be available to students whose District residency status is based on their parent/guardian's employment within District boundaries pursuant to Education Code 48204. (Education Code 46300.2, 51747.3)

A student with disabilities, as defined in Education Code 56026, shall not participate in independent study unless the student's individualized education program specifically provides for such participation. (Education Code 51745)

A temporarily disabled student shall not receive individual instruction pursuant to Education Code 48206.3 by means of independent study. (Education Code 51745)

Students age 21 or older, and students age 19 or older who have not been continuously enrolled in school since their 18th birthday, may participate in independent study only through the adult education program for the purpose of enrolling in courses required for a high school diploma by Education Code 51225.3 or the Governing Board. (Education Code 46300.1, 46300.4)
