Field Trip Request: Mills High School FCCLA (Family, Community and Career Leaders of America) 2022 National Leadership Conference

June 29 to July 3, 2022

Location: San Diego, California

Permission is requested for students from Mills High School to participate in the 2022 National Leadership Conference of FCCLA at San Diego, California from June 29 to July 3, 2022.

The National Leadership Conference will focus on uniting and assisting members to develop leadership and skills through competitive competitions. The meeting will encourage, motivate and build the confidence of participating students. The competitive events extend into the classroom learning experience with recognition and a sense of achievement while developing the needed skills for the workplace. Students will be accompanied by Jan Tuttle, Mills High School instructor and advisor for FCCLA. Transportation will be provided by a commercial airline. Lodging is to be determined. The cost for food, lodging, and transportation is approximately $700 per student and all costs are covered by student fundraising events, FCCLA Chapter, Carl Perkins funds, and parents.

Estimated Cost per student:

Transportation	$150
Food	$150
Lodging	$200
Registration	$150
Ground Trans.	$40

Total.	$690
