CALIFORNIA STUDENT AID COMMISSION

December 20, 2016

Dear County and District Superintendents, Charter School Administrators, and High School Principals:

THE CALIFORNIA DREAM ACT APPLICATION

The California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) and the California Department of Education (CDE) understand that, in light of recent events, there could be confusion regarding the California Dream Act program, which allows certain undocumented and out-of-state students ("Dreamers") to receive state financial aid while attending colleges in California. The California Dream Act is a state law, separate and distinct from the federal Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program.

Regardless of what happens at the federal level, state financial aid for Dreamers remains legal in California. A Dreamer student does not need to be DACA-certified to be eligible for a public education or state financial aid. Losing DACA status will not affect most state financial aid.

We encourage you to communicate with your students and their families that the information provided via the California Dream Act Application is used solely to determine eligibility for state financial aid and isn't shared with the federal government or used for immigration enforcement purposes. CSAC will protect this information to the fullest extent of the law.

We hope that families will conclude, as we have at CSAC, CDE, and public colleges and universities, that the opportunity represented by a college education in California is a pathway to success for Dreamers. We will remain steadfast in our commitment to protecting students and families. CSAC and CDE are proud to stand with Governor Brown, leaders of the State Legislature, multiple local governments, and our state's public and private colleges and universities in upholding the rights of California's Dreamer students.
