Assessment Data Informs Us

What is the data telling us about our English Learners (ELs)?

- ❑ Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium (SBAC)
- ❑ California English Language Development Test (CELDT)
- ❑ Dashboard English Learner Progress Indicator data
- ❑ iReady

Update on Work to Support ELs

1. New ELA/ELD Curriculum
2. Instructional Rounds/Classroom Observations & Conversations
3. ELD Champs
4. Online Learning Programs

Work to Support ELs, Continued

Actions and Accountability:

1. Tight/Loose Language Around Designated ELD which include walkthroughs
2. Supporting teachers in teams
3. Alignment of ELD Standards with the ELA & Math
4. High Quality First Instruction
5. Continued Professional Learning Community (PLC) Work

Responding to Data

We need to make some changes now and in 2017-18:

- ELD needs to be a focus again: Restructuring of Equity Coach
- Additional Training on ELD Standards
- High Quality First Instruction
- PLC Conversations
- West Ed. Professional Development in Math (middle schools)
- EL Resource Page
- ELD Coach

Next Steps

Commitment to:

- Develop an English Learner Program Matrix tool to help close the achievement gap for our ELs
- Regularly analyze our data and share results with ILTs
- Make strategic decisions based off of the data
- Strengthen focus on ELs
- Provide UDL training to all Equity TOSAs
