

Curriculum Policy Council (CPC) Ballot Results

Thursday, March 16, 2017

On March 16, 2017 the Curriculum Policy Council (CPC) voted for the following items. There were seventeen (17) signatures on the sign-in sheet; sixteen (16) were CPC members who have full rights of a single vote. After further review of the CPC bylaws, it was determined that a quorum was met and no further votes were required.

Regarding the Milpitas High School Humanities Course Proposal presented by Brian Knitter to the Curriculum Policy Council on the February 16, 2017 meeting, the CPC member votes to recommend the course to the Milpitas Unified School District Board of Education starting in the 2017 – 2018 school year.

16 In Favor to recommend to the Board of Education

0 Opposed to recommend to the Board of Education

0 Abstain from voting

Regarding the Milpitas High School Math 3A Course Proposal to replace Algebra II/Trigonometry presented by Denise Cosgrove to the Curriculum Policy Council on the February 16, 2017 meeting, the CPC member votes to recommend the course to the Milpitas Unified School District Board of Education starting in the 2017 - 2018 school year.

16 In Favor to recommend to the Board of Education

0 Opposed to recommend to the Board of Education

0 Abstain from voting

Regarding the Milpitas High School * Math 2A Course Proposal presented by Denise Cosgrove to the Curriculum Policy Council on the February 16, 2017 meeting, the CPC member votes to recommend the course to the Milpitas Unified School District Board of Education which started in the 2016 - 2017 school year.

This is a follow-up to the Math 2A course that was presented in 2014 and approved by CPC last year. No voting record was found.*

16 In Favor to recommend to the Board of Education

0 Opposed to recommend to the Board of Education

0 Abstain from voting

Curriculum Policy Council (CPC) Ballot Results

Thursday, March 16, 2017

Regarding the Milpitas High School AP Physics 2 Course Proposal presented by Kathleen Downum to the Curriculum Policy Council on the February 16, 2017 meeting, the CPC member votes to recommend the course to the Milpitas Unified School District Board of Education starting in the 2017 - 2018 school year.

16 In Favor to recommend to the Board of Education

0 Opposed to recommend to the Board of Education

0 Abstain from voting

.....

Regarding the new Milpitas High School English Textbook titled, California Collections Series. ©2017 (ISBN: 978-05-44503-30-4; 978-05-44503-31-1; 978-05-44503-32-8; 978-05-44503-33-5) published by Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, presented by Kathy Conradson, Skyler Draeger, and Lindsay Gutierrez to the Curriculum Policy Council on the February 16, 2017 meeting, the CPC member votes to recommend the course textbooks to the Milpitas Unified School District Board of Education starting in the 2017 - 2018 school year.

16 In Favor to recommend to the Board of Education

0 Opposed to recommend to the Board of Education

0 Abstain from voting