

Campbell School of Innovation Update

Board Presentation • October 12, 2017

Teacher Information Meeting

- An informational meeting was held for teachers on Sept. 25
 - 30 folks have expressed interest
 - An application was developed to identify 3-4 teachers to help design and prepare for Campbell School of Innovation's opening in 8/18
 - These are due by October 9
 - Applications and interviews for the instructional program are planned for after the first of the year
 - We anticipate needing about 12 teachers for the first year.

Facilities Planning

- ▶ The architects have provided interactive plans and we will be able to use these to demonstrate elements of the new school
 - ▶ Interior furnishings
 - ▶ Visited some sites that use flexible furnishing
 - ▶ Met with our furniture broker and will work with our furnishing team to ensure quality and price meet our needs

Marketing

- ▶ We will be working with Design in Mind for branding, website and other marketing collaterals
 - ▶ Sent a proposal to the Stanford D-school K-12 Lab Network to partner with us on this endeavor for mutual benefit
 - ▶ Train staff in design thinking processes and mindsets
 - ▶ Facilitate two or three planning meetings in the spring
 - ▶ Coach staff and leadership as needed
 - ▶ Visit sites to offer feedback and ideas for iteration through the first year
