

PROPOSAL:

Participate in a National Commercial Baking competition within the Skill USA California organization. The student will be attending the 54th annual National Leadership and Skills Conference, a showcase of career and technical education students participating in their field of study. This year the conference is heading to Louisville, Ky. June 25th -30th 2018

Purpose: Strengthen the Culinary Arts and Commercial Baking with in the school and with Skills USA.

- o Promote study in the restaurant industry
- o Develop leadership and ability to compete
- o Provide all students the opportunity to learn a life skill and prepare them for a career in the food industry.

Details: The Student will be attending a weeklong conference that will include scheduled meetings breakfast lunch and dinners. These meetings must be attended in order to compete. Cassidy has been involved with SKILLS USA for 2 years this being her second. Within that time Cassidy has took 10th in States for baking last year THEN took second place this year (a wonderful accomplishment). Cassidy has been given the green light to go to nationals this year even though she took second at STATES. This is an opportunity for Cassidy to put herself in a place that a scholarship TO A FOUR YEAR CULINARY SCHOOL is a strong possibility. Cassidy has worked very hard to reach this goal and has gone over and above with helping in the program through her studies, extra help in caterings fundraising and most importantly showing what it takes to be a team leader IN THE KITCHEN.

Cassidy's mom Courtney Trejo will be attending the conference along with me.
