.III. GENERAL PUBLIC COMMENTS

.IV. DISCUSSION ITEMS

.IV.A. Review of SMMUSD's Project Based Learning (PBL) Implementation Plan

Minutes:

Public Comments:

- Livia Herman, Shirley Compton, Ann Thanawalla, Wendy Dembo, Carlos Santini, Robert Santini, Kristin Jurenicz, Alison Havel, Hanoy Choi, Falnoosh Aguilar, Leo McDonald, Jonathan Moony, Marlee Turner, Quillen Dominique, Kristina Schauer

Staff answered board members' questions regarding the effect that the creation of this new high school would have on the enrollment at Santa Monica HS and MHS; the current population size at Olympic HS; the standard assessments for these new high school students; the process of parent engagement in the development of the Individual Learning Plans; and the inclusion of students with special needs.

Following the presentation and discussion, the board gave unanimous direction to staff to move forward with the plan as presented. The board reminded staff not to lose sight of equity when determining admission criteria. Staff will ensure this tenant of PBL is evaluated regularly for program effectiveness, similar to other district programs. Staff will keep the board updated in Friday Memos on the progress of the application and admission process as well as how the information is messaged to the community. The board requested more information on the financial aspects of the new high school program as well as protocols for establishing relationships with community partners that will have direct interaction with our students.

Staff will present another tenant of PBL at the February 26, 2019, special board meeting.

.V. BOARD MEMBER COMMENTS

- Dr. Tahvildaran-Jesswein announced that the MHS production of Spring Awakening has been rescheduled, following the fire, to February 1-3. He asked Ms. Wahrenbrock to reserve a block of seats for the superintendent and board members to attend.
- Mr. de la Torre announced a PYFC fundraiser on February 1. He also reported that he helped chaperone the JAMS Yosemite trip; he thanked all the staff and parents who help make that trip a success.

.VI. ADJOURNMENT
