Draft Facilities Master
Plan

Mr. Kenyon presented the updated draft plan and asked for feedback from the board to share with the Facilities Master Plan Committee (FMPC) when they reconvene.

Board members asked to bring this back as a study session in the fall once additional information on the 10th site is known.

10th Site Advisory
Task Force

Mr. Baier reported Councilmember Margaret Abe-Koba and Jill Jene will represent the City of Mountain View and Bullis Charter School, respectively. District staff appointments representing the educational program are Sandra McGonagle and Raquel Matteroli. Applications requiring action have been received from Lara Daetz, Tom McGovern, James Reilly and Joe Seither. Work is continuing to find a Mountain View resident in North of El Camino to participate on the Task Force.

The City of Mountain View has requested a change to the charge of the Task Force to allow for recommendations upon completion of their work.

10th Site Advisory
Task Force

MSC: Mr. Taglio, Ms. Speiser to accept the 10th Site Advisory Task Force committee members as proposed and make the modification to the 10th Site Task Force action to include recommendations.
