L. Superintendent/Staff Comments

Jen Gaviola announced that staff has been working with the Fiscal department in creating the CTE Incentive grant, which is due on Friday.

Carol Kenyon reminded everyone that tomorrow we will hold an information night for incoming Kindergarten parents at the Paso Robles High School Performing Arts Center. She also announced that a Parent University session on Early Learning is coming up, and that the next LCAP meeting will be held in February with the LCAP survey going out in February as well.

Brad Pawlowski announced that in regards to the public comment made earlier this evening about the 4A Foundation, he clarified that the Board President and Superintendent both hold a permanent seat on the 4A Foundation, and that their next meeting will be held at the District Office where they will be approving to conduct an audit, and the public is encouraged to attend.

Dr. Crocker thanked Dr. Brescia, Sheldon Smith, and Diana Larsen for the assistance they are providing us.

M. Board Member Reports/Correspondence

Chris Arend said he had the opportunity to review documents at the District Office in regards to the 4A Foundation, including numbers, and he was satisfied and did not see any great problems. He said there have been fears in the community about issues with the Foundation and he does not see any indication of that and feels much more comfortable with the situation.

Joan Summers attended a Youth Commission meeting, a 4A Foundation meeting, an LCAP meeting, budget input meetings, the Martin Luther King celebration, and the Butler peace march.

Lance Gannon attended the Butler peace march and a budget input meeting. He said he will be visiting Georgia Brown to read at their DEAR Day.

Tim Gearhart encouraged the Board to donate to the 4A Foundation. He attended an LCAP meeting, a Builders Breakfast, a PTA meeting at Pifer, a Tri-County Education Coalition meeting, and a budget input session.

Chris Bausch attended the budget input sessions, a Main Street Association board meeting, and History Day at Flamson Middle School.

Stephanie Ulibarri had an opportunity to attend one of the budget input sessions.

Joel Peterson attended a 4A Foundation meeting, budget input sessions, Flamson basketball games, and he will be reading at DEAR Day as well as attending a Parent University session. He thanked the County staff for the time and effort they are putting in for our District. He also thanked District staff for taking on extra work, and Dr. Crocker for stepping in.
