

Affiliation Agreement between the Sylvan Unified School District (Central Valley Region) and the University of the Pacific

This Affiliation Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into this 1st day of August 2018 ("Effective Date"), by and between Sylvan Unified School District (Central Valley Region) ("Host") and the University of the Pacific ("Pacific").

WHEREAS, Pacific through its Gladys L. Benerd School of Education is accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentials ("CCTC") and Western Association of Schools and Colleges ("WASC") Senior College and University Commission ("WSCUC") for credentialing and graduate-level degree programs in Education (including, without limitation, Curriculum and Instruction, Educational Administration and Leadership, and Educational and School Psychology) and must provide onsite Student Placement (defined below) for candidates enrolled in the curriculum with a hosted Student Placement experience

WHEREAS, Host recognizes the need and desires to aid in the educational development of Pacific's students and is willing to make its employees and premises available for Pacific students to participate in Student Placements.

WHEREAS, it is for the mutual benefit of both parties that they hereby agree to provide on-site Student Placement opportunities for students in the Benerd School of Education who are seeking a California teaching credential/pupil personnel services placement/internship, and other certificate/degree/preliminary administrative services credentials, we enter into this Agreement to provide the candidates with Student Placement opportunities that lead to the candidates obtaining a student teacher/administrative preliminary credential/internship or pupil personnel services credential.

WHEREAS, the Student Placements under this Agreement ("Program") will be performed at the Host facility or facilities identified in Exhibit 1; and

WHEREAS, Host faculty/administrators will supervise and mentor the students participating in the Program ("Students") for the duration of the Program; and

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants hereinafter set forth below, Pacific and Host hereby agree as follows:

Program Description. The Program is further described in Exhibit 1 (Program Description) attached hereto and by this reference incorporated herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Student Placement" encompasses Pacific students, student teachers, student teacher interns, preliminary administrative services credential students, and other interns completing field work experience. The term "student teacher intern" means a student teacher working on a credential in a certificated position. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement or in any subsequent amendment hereto, no monetary obligation on the part of Pacific or the Host to the other party is hereby created; consideration for this Agreement is furnished by the mutual benefits and promises of the parties.

Pacific Responsibilities and Understandings

The Program is a program of Pacific, and not of the Host.

Pacific shall be responsible for the academic content of the Program and shall provide necessary instruction and academic supervision and award academic credit, if any. Pacific shall be responsible for clear and specific objectives and planned learning activities and for the development of manuals and appropriate evaluation instruments for Student learning.

Pacific shall comply with applicable accrediting agencies' standards and guidelines.

Pacific shall have the right to designate the individuals who will participate in the Program subject to the following limitations:

Each Student must be enrolled at Pacific and have the requisite academic background, as determined by Pacific in its reasonable discretion, for participation; and

Host and Pacific shall agree on the number of Students who may be allowed to participate at one time.

Pacific shall be responsible for keeping all attendance and academic records of the Students. Pacific may delegate to Host and its personnel the Student evaluation activities where appropriate and as long as Pacific's primary responsibility for this function is not compromised.

Pacific shall notify Host of Student Placements, including the name of the Student, level of academic preparation, and length and dates of proposed participation in the Program.

Pacific shall require each Student to conform to the health examination and background check requirements and standards of State and Federal laws and regulations, which include submission of a negative tuberculosis screening test prior to commencing a Student Placement.

As further described in Exhibit 1 to this Agreement, Pacific faculty will determine reasonable criteria for Student evaluations. Dr. Marilyn Draheim, Chair, Assistant Dean, is a designated Pacific faculty member who will monitor the Students' instruction and experiences that occur under this Program and shall be available for conference or assistance as needed by Host during the Program.

Host Responsibilities and Understandings

Host shall provide appropriate facilities for the aspects of the Program conducted at Host's premises under this Agreement. The facilities designated by Host shall not endanger the health, safety or welfare of Pacific's Students.

Host shall provide any required safety training to Students.

Host shall be responsible for ensuring all its employees comply with all laws, rules, and regulations with regard to their conduct and interaction with students.

Host shall appoint a site supervisor for each Student. The site supervisor must have a valid credential or license for the area he/she is supervising and be an employee of Host, in order to serve as the Student's supervisor; and, must have at least three (3) years post-licensure experience for Pupil Personnel Services/School Psychologists credential.

Host shall ensure that Students are familiar with and observe all applicable rules, regulations, and policies of Host to which Students are expected to adhere during the Program and while on Host premises (including, without limitation, applicable health and safety training in accordance with prevailing federal and state laws).

Consistent with the availability of resources for Host's employed staff, Students shall be provided adequate supplies and materials to carry out the functions of the Student Placement experience.

Pacific personnel shall be permitted to participate in the instruction of Students on Host premises as necessary to effectively implement the Program except when, in the reasonable opinion of the Host, such participation interferes with the Host's operations.

Host shall permit Pacific to visit Host's premises, to consult with Host personnel involved in the Program, and to evaluate Student progress while they are on Host premises; provided, however, that such visits shall be subject to reasonable rules and policies of Host.

In the event of a medical emergency involving a Student while the Student is on Host premises, Host shall respond according to the same procedure it would follow if one of its employees experienced the same emergency.

Host shall provide educational learning experiences (including opportunities for professional development) which are planned, organized, administered, and supervised by qualified staff in accordance with mutually agreed upon educational objectives and guidelines to help prepare Students for future careers in their fields of study.

Students shall perform services as part of their participation in the Program only when under the supervision of authorized, licensed or certified Host personnel. Host understands and agrees that Students are trainees, they shall not be considered employees or contractors of the Host while participating in the Program, and shall not be used to replace School personnel (except for teacher residency and internship pathways).

Joint Responsibilities of Pacific and School

The parties shall coordinate the planning, scheduling, requirements, and evaluations of Students who participate in the Program. Schedules and Student assignments shall be developed to enhance the goals, objectives and missions of both Host and Pacific. Each party's final examination and vacation schedules will be honored by the parties.

Each party shall perform independent and joint reviews to determine the effectiveness of the Program.

Each party may enter into similar agreements with other institutions at any time.

Confidentiality and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

The parties agree to comply with the applicable requirements of state of California and federal privacy laws, including the Family and Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") and its implementing regulations. The parties acknowledge that student educational records are protected by FERPA and that student permission generally must be obtained before releasing specific student data to anyone other than the student's school. Each party agrees to cooperate with the other party regarding compliance with FERPA with respect to records pertaining to Students. Each party certifies that access to such records is necessary for the performance by each party under this Agreement, and agrees that each return any Pacific property to Pacific within thirty (30) days of the early termination or expiration of the Agreement, or such other timeframe as agreed upon by the parties in writing.

Compliance with Laws; Accreditation, Licensing and Credentials. Each party shall be separately responsible for compliance with all laws, rules and regulations which may be applicable to its respective activities under this Agreement. Each party shall be separately responsible for accreditation, licensing, and credentialing of its own entities and employees, as applicable, and each party agrees to furnish to the other party with evidence of such accreditation, licensing, and credentials upon request by the other party. Host further agrees to cooperate with Pacific with respect to its accreditation requirements and will gather data related to Students' participation in a Student Placement under this Agreement.

Nondiscrimination. With respect to the parties' obligations under this Agreement, the parties agree not to discriminate in employment, academic programs, or the provision of services on the basis of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, age (over 40 years), sex, sexual orientation, marital status, medical condition, disability or any other basis protected by federal, state, or local ordinance or regulation. Host shall comply with applicable state of California and federal laws and regulations governing reasonable accommodations and the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Cooperation in Disposition of Claims. The parties agree to cooperate with each other in the timely investigation and disposition of audits, peer review matters, disciplinary actions and third-party liability claims arising out of this Agreement. The parties shall notify one another as soon as possible of any adverse event that may result in liability to the other party. It is the intention of the parties to fully cooperate in the disposition of all such audits, actions or claims. Such cooperation may include, but is not limited to, timely notice, joint investigation, and making witnesses available.

Student Discipline or Reassignment. Students' discipline shall be the sole responsibility of Pacific, however Host or Pacific may terminate the participation of any Student, who, at the determination of Host or Pacific does not comply with the Program requirements or applicable rules or regulations of Host, Pacific, or state of California or federal laws or regulations. If Host reasonably determines that a Student is not performing satisfactorily for reasons including, but not limited to, tardiness or absenteeism, failure to follow instructions, or failure to follow rules or policies, Host agrees to contact Dr. Dymaneke Mitchell, Associate Dean, at dmitchell@pacific.edu or 209-946-2556 to either counsel or reassign the Student.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

Dispute Resolution. In the event of any dispute, controversy, claim or disagreement arising out of or related to this Agreement, or the acts or omissions of the parties with respect to this Agreement (each, a "Dispute"), the parties shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after one party gives written notice of a Dispute to the other party ("Dispute Notice"), meet and confer in good faith regarding such Dispute at such time and place as mutually agreed upon by the parties. If any Dispute is not resolved to the mutual satisfaction of the parties within ten (10) business days after delivery of the Dispute Notice (or such other period as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing), the parties shall settle such Dispute as otherwise set forth in this Section. In the event a Dispute is not resolved by the meet and confer provisions under this Section above, the parties may choose any other available legal means to settle the Dispute. Each party agrees that a violation or threatened violation of this Agreement may cause irreparable injury to the other party, entitling the other party to seek injunctive relief in addition to all legal remedies.

party shall be subject to, and shall comply with, the same conditions and restrictions on the use and re-disclosure such records pursuant to applicable law.

Records maintained by Host of Students paid by Host may also constitute employment records protected from disclosure absent consent under applicable state and federal laws and regulations.

In order for Pacific and the Host to jointly monitor the Student's performance in the Program, all Students shall, as a condition to their placement, execute a "Release of Records" (Exhibit 2) which allows the Host and Pacific to share information that may otherwise be protected from disclosure as an educational record (and/or an employment record) to the extent the information relates to the performance of the Student in the Program. Failure to execute the "Release of Records" shall make the Student ineligible for placement with Host.

Each party to this Agreement will immediately notify the other in the event it becomes aware of violations of the other party's rules, regulations, policies or procedures by the Student and/or any negligent or intentional conduct when the conduct of the Student jeopardizes the health and/or safety of Host's students or staff. The parties agree to cooperate in the investigation of any such conduct so long as an appropriate Release of Records has been obtained.

Insurance. Both parties during the term of this Agreement will provide at their sole cost and expense Commercial General Liability insurance in the amount of one million per occurrence ($1,000,000) and two million aggregate ($2,000,000). Upon request, each party will provide the other with evidence of such insurance. By virtue of this Agreement, Pacific does not assume any liability under any law relating to workers compensation on account of any act of any Student performing any activity related to or arising out of this Agreement.

Indemnification. Each party agrees to defend, indemnify and hold one another, their respective regents, officers, directors, employees, students and agents harmless from and against all third party claims for injury or damages, liability, loss, expense (including reasonable attorney's fees and costs) ("Loss"), arising out of the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, but only in proportion to and to the extent the Loss is caused by or results from the negligence or intentional acts or omissions of the indemnifying party. The indemnities provided under this Section 7 shall not be limited by reason of any insurance coverage required under this Agreement and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

Relationship of the Parties and Students. Each party is and shall be an independent contractor of the other party. Neither party nor its employees or subcontractors shall be deemed to be employees or agents of the other party. Neither party's employees and subcontractors will be entitled to any benefits made available to the other party's employees. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to establish a partnership, joint venture, or agency relationship between the parties, and neither party nor its employees or subcontractors are authorized to bind the other party or make any representations on its behalf in any matter.

Term and Termination. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall terminate five (5) years thereafter, unless earlier terminated or extended as provided herein. The Agreement may be renewed for up to two (2) subsequent one (1) year terms upon the mutual agreement of the parties in writing. This Agreement may be terminated at any time without cause by either party, upon giving the other party sixty (60) days written notice; provided, however, that any such termination shall not be effective as to any Student who as of the date of mailing of notice by the terminating party is participating in the Program until the Student has completed his/her participation in the Program for the then current academic term (semester or year), unless otherwise agreed by the parties. Host agrees to Entire Agreement. This Agreement is the entire agreement between the parties regarding its subject matter. No other agreements, oral or written, have been entered into with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

Modifications. This Agreement may not be modified or amended except by an instrument in writing executed by duly authorized representatives of the parties.

Severability of Terms. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions will not in any way be affected or impaired thereby, unless the effect of such severance would be to alter substantially this Agreement or the obligations of the parties, in which case this Agreement may be immediately terminated by either party upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice, or as otherwise allowed by the termination provisions of this Agreement.

Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which so executed shall constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized officers or delegates, as of the Effective Date.

No Assignment. Neither party may voluntarily or by operation of law, assign or otherwise transfer any part of this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party. Any purported assignment in violation of this Section shall be void.

EXHIBIT 1 PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Program Objective & Goals

Through program coursework and fieldwork experiences in TK-16 school settings and beyond, our candidates must satisfy learning outcomes by demonstrating proficiency in all standards, Teaching Performance Expectations (TPEs), and Teaching Performance Assessments (TPAs) as required by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing, as well as those requirements in School Psychology/Pupil Personnel Services and Administrative Services Credential.

Program Overview

All professional education degree and credential programs at University of the Pacific are offered and coordinated through the Gladys L. Benerd School of Education. Students in the Benerd School of Education are prepared to deliver thoughtful, reflective, caring, and collaborative services to diverse populations. The School directs its efforts toward researching the present and future needs of schools and the community, fostering intellectual and ethical growth, and developing compassion and collegiality through personalized learning experiences. Per the California Commission on Accreditation/California Commission for Teacher Education, candidates seeking credentials must be placed in clinical practice experiences that extend candidates' learning and application of theory to practice with Transitional Kindergarten to grade 12 students in public and/or private school settings, as according to the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing, the range of Clinical Practice Experiences includes early field experiences, advanced experiences for co-planning and co-teaching (i.e. teacher residency), and student teaching or approved internships for related programs (i.e. Pupil Personnel & Administrative Services Programs).

Host's Responsibilities

Host shall participate with Pacific in planning the Program, including those experiences required to complete the EdTPA Teaching Events (pursuant to SB2042 and SB1209), as well as data collection required by the (CCTC/COA) and (CAEP).

For student teacher interns, Host shall:

- (1) assign an on-site mentor who possesses a valid Clear or Life credential in the appropriate subject area, has 3 years documented successful teaching experience and holds an English Learner Authorization (or the equivalent, as established by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing); and
- (2) Participate with Pacific in planning and implementing a comprehensive and coordinated program of support and mentoring for the student teacher intern, in conformance with the most current requirements established by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing and articulated by Pacific in its approved Intern Document, attached hereto as Exhibit 1-A and incorporated herein.

Additional Student Qualifications

Pacific Students are only eligible to participate in the Program during a defined academic semester/term (Fall or Spring).

For student teacher interns only, Pacific shall:

- (i) confirm that the Student meets all the criteria for an intern credential, as established by this Program sponsor and approved by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing pursuant to Exhibit 1-A, and provides the information requested pursuant to Exhibit 1-B;
- (ii) assign a supervisor who has successfully completed Pacific-provided intern supervision training;
- (iii) assign intern supervision duties that adhere to the most current requirements established by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing and articulated by Pacific in Exhibit 1-A; and
- (iv) participate with Host in planning and implementing a comprehensive and coordinated program of support and mentoring for the intern teacher, in conformance with the most current requirements established by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing and articulated by Pacific in Exhibit 1-A.

EXHIBIT 1-A INTERN DOCUMENT

NOTE: This section shall apply only for student teacher interns.

On June 3, 2013, the Commission on Teacher Credentialing issued Program Sponsor Alert 1306 detailing new requirements for programs that offered intern credentials. This PSA is available at:
<http://www.ctc.ca.gov/educator-prep/PS-alerts/2013/PSA-13-06.pdf>.

In response to this PSA, the UNIVERSITY prepared and submitted revised program documents reflecting the new requirements. On May 19, 2014 the Commission on Teacher Credentialing approved these revised program documents, thereby granting approval to the University of the Pacific to issue intern credentials to qualified teacher credential candidates. Terms of the revised program documents include specific mentoring and support that the HOST and UNIVERSITY must provide including:

- Assignment by the HOST of a mentor who meets the criteria identified in 3.C.ii.1. of this Agreement and who is available to provide regular on-site support to the intern teacher.
- Assignment of a UNIVERSITY supervisor who meets the criteria identified in 3.C.1. of this Agreement and who is assigned to provide regular on-site support to the intern teacher, in coordination with the HOST mentor.
- Regular on-site support includes observation/coaching sessions, provision of materials and resources, feedback on lesson plans, logistical support (bulletin boards, instructional materials, etc.), and other types of assistance designed to strengthen the intern teacher's instructional effectiveness
- Regular on-site support must be provided in a scheduled and coordinated manner and must adhere to these requirements: 144 hours with at least 2 hours of support per every five instructional days for general instruction coaching and mentoring AND 5 hours of support per month specific to teaching English learners, or if less than a full academic year, the total number of hours of support must equal four hours times the number of instructional weeks remaining in the year, with at least two hours of support provided every five instructional days. English language learner support less than a full academic year must equal five hours times the number of months in the school year.
- The intern teacher's faculty advisor will assist the HOST mentor and the UNIVERSITY supervisor in creating this coordinated and regular system of support

Note: This section shall apply only to PPS School Psychology Interns

1. The District will provide the Interns with the opportunity to transfer methodology and theories into applied situations via their participation in the internship experience and is responsible for providing the Interns with diverse experience in preparation for their future careers as school psychologists, in accordance with the Interns' knowledge and level of training, in the form all the activities normally expected of a district-employed school psychologist. These experiences may include, but are not limited to, the experiences and activities set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto.

2. The District will provide the Interns with experiences that will allow them to complete 1200-1500 clock hours of work during their internship experience, depending on the degree sought by each Intern. The specific hourly requirement for each Intern is set forth next to that Intern's name on Exhibit A.
3. Each Site Supervisor will have the following responsibilities as part of his or her supervision of the Interns:
 - a. The Site Supervisor will cooperatively plan and schedule the Interns' activities and experiences during the internship experience. Attached is the program's syllabi for required and suggested activities.
 - b. The Site Supervisor will schedule and provide a minimum of 2 hours of direct face-to-face supervision each week.
 - c. The Site Supervisor will review and sign each entry from the Interns' log and progress notes to verify content.
 - d. The Site Supervisor will complete and submit end-of-semester evaluation forms, which will be provided by the University.
 - e. The Site Supervisor will release the Intern, as needed, to attend fieldwork supervision and classes. (It is understood that the Intern will need to be released with sufficient time to travel between the fieldwork site and the University).
 - f. The Site Supervisor will hold a valid Pupil Personnel Services credential appropriate to the role and function of the duties being performed by the Intern.
 - g. The Site Supervisor will participate in University-sponsored supervisor meetings held 2-3 times per year.
 - h. The Site Supervisor will ensure that the Intern meets, at a minimum, the Hourly Requirement of the fieldwork in a preschool-grade 12 setting in which he or she is qualified to supervise.
4. Consistent with the availability of resources to employed staff, the Intern is provided adequate supplies and materials to carry out the functions of the internship experience. An appropriate work environment should include adequate privacy of office facilities and access to secretarial assistance, telecommunication services, office equipment, and copying machines.
5. Ongoing professional development is a significant aspect of the internship experience. Conferences, seminars, and in-service training opportunities available to employed school psychologists should also be available to the Interns. The Interns are encouraged to participate in state, regional, and national level meetings for school psychologists. Release time is granted by the University and is expected to be granted by the District.

INTERN EXPERIENCES

1. Role and Function: Develop a knowledge base and understanding of the various roles and functions of the school psychologist, and be able to selectively deliver services utilizing a variety of alternative models.
2. Legal/Ethical: Develop a knowledge base of federal and state laws, professional ethics, and professional standards as well as the skills to apply them in public and private educational agencies. Develop the skills to adhere to due process guidelines in major decisions affecting all students and to accepted standards in the practice of school psychology.
3. Organization and Operation of Schools: Develop an understanding of the organization and administration of public schools and the cultural, ethnic, religious, and geographic diversity

- of the students, parents, and staff served by school psychologists. Develop an awareness of community resources and the roles of other professionals in helping children, parents, and school personnel. Develop the skills to foster and facilitate interagency partnerships among family, school, health care, and community agencies to create healthy school environments.
4. Assessment: Develop the skills to select, administer, score, and interpret psychoeducational tests for individuals of different ages, exceptionalities, and cultural backgrounds. Develop competence in the use of interviewing, functional behavioral assessment, and curriculum-based methods. Develop the skills to integrate psychological and educational data into a psychological report and be able to link assessment results to educationally relevant interventions.
 5. Counseling: Develop a counseling and mental health knowledge base and the skills to work with Interns who have educational, emotional, and/or behavioral problems to mitigate the emergence of enduring, unhealthy patterns of behavior. Develop a knowledge base and skills to help students, families, and schools deal with crises, such as school violence, suicide, and loss.
 6. Intervention: Develop a knowledge base and the skills to identify controllable, causal aspects of social, emotional, and academic difficulties and be able to consult and collaborate in the design, implementation, and evaluation of interventions based on these aspects.
 7. Communication Skills: Develop the interpersonal skills and both oral and written communication skills necessary to communicate effectively with children, parents, and school personnel from varied cultural, ethnic, religious, and geographic backgrounds. Develop the interpersonal skills to function as team leaders in school-based multidisciplinary teams.
 8. Research: Become educated consumers of research relating to school psychology and be able to apply these research findings to the development of solutions for educational psychological problems. Be able to disseminate information from the school psychology knowledge base to promote healthy school environments.
